State To Build More Highways

Accept Buffalo Lake and Georgia Street Roads As Asked by Commissioners

The State Highway Commission has advised that the state will assume the paving of the road from Umbarger to Buffalo Lake and pave Georgia Street in South Amarillo to highway 87.

County Commissioners Clarence Beckman and Calvin Casey recently appeared before the Highway Commission in Austin asking that the State assume these projects.

The State Highway Engineer, D. C. Greer, has notified the Commissioners that their proposals were acceptable, and that the state would do this work. No time was given for letting a contract on these projects.

The Buffalo Lake road was built out of the funds of Precinct No. 2, but there was no fund to do the topping. Heavy traffic on this road imposed an unnecessary burden on the road and bridge fund of this precinct.

The extension of paving on Georgia Street will open up a considerable block of city improvements in South Amarillo. This paving will be done in addition to Western Avenue, which was approved several months ago.

School Election To Draw Women Candidates

Candidates for trustees of the Canyon Independent School District have until next Tuesday to file for a place on the official ballot.

Three names have been filed: Dr. Lee Johnson, B. A. Burrus and W. R. Crow.

It was announced last week that the name of Newton Crain was being submitted. On investigation it was found that he has not lived in the district a sufficient length of time to qualify as a candidate.

The PTA is considering entering the names of two or more women as candidates for the school board. Action will be taken before next Tuesday. The election will be held April 6.

The school trustees met last Thursday night, but no action was taken on the list of applicants who had filed for superintendent of the public schools. The list stands at 15, with no more applications being received this week.

Firestone Merchandise Is Starting to Move, Says Cole

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cole were in Oklahoma City Monday where Mr. Cole visited the Firestone district distributing house which serves Canyon. They have also recently visited the Firestone distributing house at Dallas to make connections.

Mr. Cole states that the tire situation is still critical. He is promised more tires, but the manufacture of passenger tires is still being delayed in favor of the larger tires.

Mr. Cole was promised a larger amount of Firestone merchandise for the store of the Consumers Service Station. He hopes to have a full line of Firestone products in stock soon.

Duster Hit on Sunday, Dropped Mercury to 24

A genuine duster hit Canyon Sunday, dropping the temperature to 24 degrees above zero as the wind swept in from the north.

With Easter coming late this year, April 21, it is expected that spring will be late in coming.

Wheat is reported to be doing well in spite of the slow start which the crop had due to the lack of fall moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Granger of Detroit, Michigan and Mrs. Tommie Nigro of New York City visited in the homes of Mrs. E. D. Harrell and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell this week.

Mrs. Silas Hart returned Friday from a trip to eastern points to markets. While away she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Simmons and her husband in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Jim Cheyne and son, Don, have gone to Chowchilla, California to join Mr. Cheyne who has bought them a home there and is engaged in the grocery business.

Veteran Is Slugged and Robbed Near Stafford Hall Saturday, Is Report

Harold C. Reid, 22 years old, of Goodwell, Okla., is in the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo with a fractured skull which, he told Sheriff M. E. Cantrell he received when struck on the head by an unknown assailant early Saturday morning. The youth said he lost $18.

Reid, according to Sheriff Cantrell, is a student at Panhandle A. & M. College at Goodwell and he had come to Canyon to contact the West Texas State College Veterans Administration officials. The youth told Sheriff Cantrell that he arrived in Canyon on a late bus and went to Stafford Hall. He found everyone asleep so lay down on a couch.

Unable to sleep, Reid said he started to Bob's Cafe, three blocks away, for a cup of coffee. When about a block from the cafe a man stopped him and asked him for a match. Reid says that is the last he remembers until he woke up about 3 o'clock in a ditch near the road. He made his way back to Stafford Hall where he aroused students. They called a Griggs-Warren Ambulance and Reid was taken to Amarillo after receiving emergency treatment here.

Sheriff Cantrell said the youth was unable to give a description of his assailant.

Contract Is Let On Widening of Highway No. 87

The State Highway Commission has awarded a contract to Bell & Braden of Amarillo for the highway work between Canyon and Amarillo.

The highway will be widened to three lanes from the Amarillo city limits to the top of the big hill north of Canyon. From that point to the junction of highways 69 and 87 the construction will be a four lane highway, with the exception of the two bridges, which will not be widened.

Work is expected to start on this project soon in order that the topping may be run before cold weather this fall. It will require 120 working days to complete the contract. The bid was $550,000, one of the largest contracts let by the State Highway Commission this month.

Government Calls For More Food To Be Raised

The government is calling for the maximum number of Victory gardens for 1946.

The food situation in the nation is critical, as more demands are being made for food to be shipped to the starving nations of Europe and Asia.

Former President Hoover, food administrator during World War I, is now making a world tour to survey the needs for food.

The farmers of Randall county were advised several months ago that they must raise more food during 1946 than in years past. Citizens of all towns are now advised that gardens must be increased to meet the food demands.

All citizens are advised not to waste foods of any kind.

Mrs. Elliott Is Nominated Vice President H. D.

MRS. S. G. ELLIOTT

The Ralph Home Demonstration Club and Randall County Council is presenting as nominee for the candidate of Vice-president of District One, Mrs. Simon G. Elliott, Route 2, Happy, Texas.

Mrs. Elliott is well qualified for the office for which she is being presented. She has held offices in her club and is now serving her second year as council chairman. She is efficient, tireless, full of enthusiasm, and is an exceptionally good extemporaneous speaker. Her contagious personality endears her to all with whom she comes in contact. Her college education prepared her for the service she is now rendering her community as Scout Leader, Club woman, and parent, and for which we are confident she is capable of serving her district.

Mrs. Elliott has attended both District and State meetings of T. H. D. A., has taken part on State Program, and is well acquainted with its plan of work.

We earnestly solicit your vote and influence for Mrs. Elliott as Vice-president.

Directors Seek $600 Monthly

President Bob Clark Says Finance Drive to Start This Week

A plan for financing an adequately supported Canyon Chamber of Commerce will be placed before business firms and citizens at once by the board of directors. Employment of a full-time manager is contemplated.

"The board of directors has been elected and charged with the responsibility of making the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, Inc. an active, effective organization," said President Bob Clark. "We have made a thorough study of the needs—which are urgent—and we are ready to place our plans before the people."

Mr. Clark said a minimum of $600 a month would be needed to carry out the program being developed. This sum, to be sought in the form of monthly pledges from local citizens, would be used to open an office, employ a manager, and finance the program.

Teamwork Is Stressed
"It would be futile to employ a good man and not have funds with which to work," President Clark declared. "Money will be needed for office supplies, telegrams, trips, surveys, advertising, and for financing of committee work. The officers and directors will be active in carrying out the policies for community betterment. We expect to employ a good manager, but we are not looking for a Superman. We realize that only teamwork of many citizens and organizations can reach the successes we seek."

Secretary Jack Haley told directors of the Chamber that the flood of inquiries reaching his desk was far greater than could be adequately answered. There are numerous requests for information about business opportunities in this community. Growth of the city will depend in some measure upon the care with which surveys are made and these questions answered. Several business firms have located here as a result of work by local citizens.

County-Wide Program Drawn
It will be the policy of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce to work with county-wide organizations in seeking farm-to-market roads, more rural telephones and power lines, and development of the county's agricultural resources. Cooperation with local schools and promotion of West Texas State College will be stressed. Committees have been appointed to work with other groups in developing city and county legislative programs. A municipal airport will be sought. Parks and community centers will be advocated. City and county beautification will be urged and plans drawn.

City officials have pointed out the need for a more adequate water supply. The local fire insurance rate structure is in jeopardy.

Promotion of Canyon as a city of good homes, churches, schools, etc. is regarded as greatly needed. Preparation of data and advertising materials are essential.

Much mail addressed to the Canyon Chamber of Commerce is received from city, state, and federal agencies. Prompt action on such requests will result in many benefits coming to this community. Only a full-time office can take advantage of these opportunities.

President Clark pointed out that the effectiveness of a Chamber of Commerce develops through a long-range program. He hopes that Canyon citizens may regard the opening of a full-time office as a "must" and that the plan will be given every chance to prove itself.

Other officers and directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce include:

Ray Cole, vice-president.

L. D. Winn, vice-president.

Children's Ears May Bring Real Future Handicap

The child who cannot hear is badly handicapped. Hard-of-hearing children are often considered backward and become greatly retarded in school when in reality they may be highly intelligent but simply cannot hear much of what is said to them. Children who appear backward in school should be observed carefully to determine if hearing is a factor in the situation.

According to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, many injuries to the ear can be prevented by keeping foreign objects out of the ear canal, taking good care of the ears during colds and other diseases and observing certain precautions when swimming.

"The cause of middle ear trouble often is diving and swimming," Dr. Cox said. "Whenever the nose is under water the breath should be continually and gently expelled through the nose to keep the nasal passages free of water. Protect the ears further by wearing a rubber cap."

The State Health Officer declared that no hard instrument of any kind should be used in cleansing the ear canal since it may be injurious. Using ordinary precautions can do much to avoid minor ear trouble which may later lead to partial or complete deafness, the doctor said.

After giving the private a dressing down for being so late in returning with the supplies, the sergeant demanded, "Okay, let's hear how it happened, Miller."

"Well, I picked up a chaplain along the road," explained the woe-begone rookie, "and from then on the mules couldn't understand a word I said."

Chairman H. C. Pipkin Says Half of Goal Of $60,000 Is Reached

Launching of a final drive to raise $60,000 to complete the Plains Museum here has been announced in Amarillo by H. C. Pipkin, general finance chairman. About $31,000 has already been raised.

Potter County, which has a quota of $10,000, has given about $6000. The county drive chairman is S. B. Whittenburg.

Panhandle counties in which a minimum quota of $1,000 has been raised include Armstrong, Carson, Sherman, Hartley, Farmer, Wheeler, and Randall.

In Hutchinson County, C. R. Stahl and A. A. Meredith will direct a drive in April. Other counties have similar plans.

Mrs. L. E. Mason called on Mrs. Fuqua last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuqua called at the Raymond Kimball home last Thursday evening.

The Muir place looks as if it will be ready for occupation soon. The windmill is up and chicken house built and improvement on the house done.

At a wedding in the Piney Woods country a great time was had by all. At the big dinner held after the ceremony, the bridegroom was called on to respond to a toast, in spite of his protest that he could not make a speech. He blushed, placed his hand on the bride's shoulder and stammered, "Well... folks... er, this thing has been forced on me!"

Hi School Press Meets at WT

Assembly to Be Changed To Saturday So Visitors May Be Guests

Two hundred high school journalists will come to West Texas State Saturday, March 23, for the annual convention of the Panhandle High School Press Association.

The association, organized in 1934, did not hold a convention last year because of transportation regulations which prevented it. In previous years, as many as 400 students attended the annual meetings here. Officers of the Association are Patsie Northcutt of Amarillo, president; Anna Merle Cox of Pampa, vice-president; Jo Ella Hussey of White Deer, secretary; and Alvin Jennings of West Texas High School, treasurer. West Texas State is a permanent headquarters of the high school group, and Professor Olin E. Hinkle of West Texas State is general sponsor.

Registration will be opened at the Education Building at 9 a. m. Saturday. The first general session will start at 10 a. m. At 11 o'clock, the visitors will be special guests at a West Texas State assembly. Musical entertainment will be furnished by the Buffalo band. The featured speaker will be A. Eugene Mann, director of publicity and publications of Eastern New Mexico College of Portales since 1944. Mr. Mann, who has served as school newspaper adviser for the last thirteen years, formerly was an instructor in journalism and supervisor of student teaching in English at Western State College, Gunnison, Colorado. He also taught for a time at Pampa High School. He has a B. S. degree from Southwestern State College of Weatherford, Oklahoma, and an M. A. degree from Western State College of Colorado of Gunnison.

Sports Editor to Speak
Convention delegates and sponsors will be given a luncheon at the Methodist church at 12:30 o'clock, with students of Canyon High School in charge. In an afternoon session starting at 2 p. m. in the auditorium of the Education Building, the visitors will hear discussions by Harry Gilstrap, sports editor of the Globe-News, and Clyde W. Warwick, publisher of the Canyon News. At 3 p. m., sectional meetings will be held for discussions of school newspaper staff organization, news writing, photography, year books, sports writing, and editorial writing. A business meeting will follow in which officers will be elected and at which winners of the annual writing contest will be announced.

Following adjournment, a light luncheon will be served at the college cafeteria with students of West Texas High School in charge. Type High, the college press club, will give a post-convention reception and dance at Cousins Hall ballroom from 5:30 to 7 p. m.

Advance registration indicates that delegates will range in number from White Deer's six to Pampa's twenty-seven. Thirty schools were members of the Panhandle High School Press Association before the war-time restrictions limited organizational activities.

"You want to make your money go a long way, don't you?" asked the preacher.

"Yes, of course," replied the rich, but tight-fisted old member of the congregation.

"Then the thing for you to do," advised the minister, "is to give a lot for foreign missions."

How would you CHART YOUR COURSE?

Pictured here are the records of four "life lines" of our business—four things which largely control the destiny of any business, whether it be a farm, a factory or a store. They are Wages, Materials Costs, Prices, and Profits. Suppose these were pictures of what is going on in your own affairs. How would you chart your future course from these facts?

What about wages?

Wages have risen steadily for five years. Before the strike which began on January 21 in ten of our plants and which has choked off nearly all farm machinery production, earnings of employees of these plants averaged $1.15 1/2 an hour, not including any overtime. The Union demanded a 34 cents per hour increase and a Government board has now recommended a general increase of 18 cents an hour, which would make average earnings $1.33 1/2 an hour. Weekly average would be $53.40.

What about materials?

No one seems to know how high materials costs will go. The Government has increased steel prices as much as $12.00 a ton, with an average increase for all grades of 8.2%. Steel is the most important material we buy, but prices on other materials are also increasing.

What about prices?

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government in early 1942. Since then a few small increases have been allowed where particular machines were substantially changed in design.

What about profits?

Risk is part of the American profit and loss system, so we do not, of course, ask either our customers or the Government to guarantee that we can be certain of profits each year. The chart tells the story of our profits during the war. Although Harvester produced more goods than ever before, it had no desire to get rich out of war, so our rate of profit has steadily gone down. What our 1946 profit will be is extremely uncertain.

What is the next step?

As you can see, our present situation is that with frozen prices and declining profits, we are asked to pay higher materials costs and to make the biggest wage increase in the history of the Company. Can we do this?

Wages and materials consume all but a few cents of every dollar we take in. If our prices continue frozen, and cost of wages and materials continues to rise, obviously our Company will begin to operate at a loss at some point.

The exact point at which operating at a loss would start is a matter of judgment. Government agencies and union leaders may have opinions as to where that point is. But if they turn out to be wrong, they can shrug their shoulders and say: "Well, it wasn't my responsibility. I didn't make the decision."

The management of this Company cannot and will not say that. It dares not gamble. It has to be sure. Continuation of our service to millions of customers, the future jobs of thousands of employees, and the safety of the investments of 39,000 stockholders depend on our making as correct a decision as is humanly possible.

What about future prices on farm machinery?

The judgment of Harvester's management now is that we cannot safely make the huge wage increase recommended by the Government until the Government authorizes adequate increases in the prices of farm machinery to cover the resulting increased costs.

That is not a judgment that makes us happy. The Company does not want to raise prices. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We have produced at 1942 prices, and hoped we could continue to do so. We have delayed seeking general price relief in the hope that it could be avoided. Now we are convinced that it cannot be avoided any longer. The price question must be settled. Until it is settled we do not see how we can settle the wage question. Until the wage question is settled we do not see how we can resume production and begin turning out the farm machines which we know our farmer customers need.

Because of the important stake which both farmers and city dwellers have in this controversy, we are bringing these matters to your attention. Through the cross currents of today's conditions, we are trying to chart a course that is fair to our employees, to our farmer customers, and to our stockholders.

CLAUDIO ESCALANTE

Peruvian Likes His Work Here

It's a Long Way From Home, He Says, But Worth the Voyage

Not since January 10 has WT's special student, Claudio Escalante, seen his home city of Arequipa, Peru. That was the day he left for the Peruvian port of Lima—and for his first contact with the strange life of American collegians.

After waiting in Lima a week or so, he finally boarded the ship bringing him to the United States. Describing the long trip, Claudio asserted that all was "Bon Voyage," (how do you say that in Spanish?), until he docked in Panama, where he spent five miserable days coping with terrible food, worse accommodations.

Then, with his hands holding his forehead suppressing a very sick look, Claudio told of a five-day trip to New Orleans. Yes, sir, it was a very sick five days. In New Orleans he caught a two-day train trip and on the twenty-first of February was resting under the sheltering gables of Stafford Hall.

Claudio is usually racing around the hall with a smile on his face. Occasionally he gives with some Latin American music—not doing a bad job, either.

You can understand Claudio's predicament if you can picture trying to make yourself understood in Peru with the equivalent of two years' high school Spanish. But whether he speaks his native tongue or in English, this dark-eyed Peruvian representative has a charm of manner that would make him well-liked on any campus.

Ping Pong Observer

He passes more time studying than Joe College does at the Student Union. Before chow and after studying, a twenty-minute lapse, he wanders down to watch the boys beat out a few games of ping pong.

After lunch, the SOP includes a variety of things: studying, going to class, then studying. One day we copped a little of his time at the Prairie office—it was the first time, by the way, that he had been exposed to snow.

The minute details of Claudio's experiences in South America will have to be left to your imagination. However, you usually decide that the weather was rather hot when the conversationalist, finding no better form of expression in good solid English, pulls off his shirt and wipes feverishly at his brow. This happened during the episode "A Year in the Peruvian Air Force."

Nope, the army is no good, the Iquitos Jungle is no good, and from other contortions of the face and waving of the hands, you conclude that nothing that occurred during the year could have been printed in Boston.

Will Study Markets

While still carrying on our interview with the 19-year-old business administration major, we discovered his purpose in coming to West Texas State College. His father is in the leather business and needs a foreign correspondent to study markets in the United States and in Great Britain.

Warren-Miller Team in Quick Museum Drive

SPEARMAN—It took Editor Bill Miller of the Spearman Reporter and David M. Warren of Panhandle, former Reporter publisher, just seven hours to raise $1,040 in Hansford County for the building fund of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum at Canyon. The county had a minimum voluntary goal of $1,000.

Mr. Miller is a historical society director.

J. R. Collard, another Hansford County director, started off the list with $100. Then, the First State Bank gave $100 and the campaign was off. Miller and Warren raised $670 in Spearman and went to Gruver for about two hours, getting $240 there.

With $910 of the fund raised, two gifts for $30 were received at Spearman. Then Miller telephoned Walter Wilmoth that he was going out to see him. Wilmoth wrote his check for $100, so Miller and Warren called it a day with $1,040 on hand.

Counsel was cross-examining a badtempered witness: "Do you drink?" he asked.

"That is my business," was the surly reply.

"Any other?" queried the lawyer.

Bids Sought On Dormitory

Veterans' Building Will Be Ready in Fall If Materials Are Found

Plans and specifications of the veterans' dormitory, which will be located east of Terrill Hall, have been completed. Bids are now being advertised for its construction. Bids will be open and contracts let about April 7, according to President J. A. Hill. The dormitory will be completed before the fall school term.

Architects are working on plans and specifications for the cafeteria at present. This contract will probably be let in May.

The college cafeteria will have a large dining room which will seat approximately 500 people, banquet style. During cafeteria service, it will seat about 400 persons. Two other dining rooms will seat 100 persons and 25 persons. The building will be air conditioned and modern lighting. It will have a lounge for men, one for women, and a lounge for both. Living quarters for the manager and the necessary offices are included in the plans.

The Randall Hall annex will be completed by July 1 but it will not be ready for occupancy until the fall term. The new part will room 98 girls. The present dining hall will be transformed into rooms and will raise the number of girls to 110.

Special Course for Returning POW's

Last of the German POW's are to be sent home from the U. S. by July, but before they leave the more co-operative are being given opportunity to learn more about American institutions and democracy in special centers through which they are processed 2000 a time in six-day cycles. Here is a class in English, using recordings, at Fort George G. Meade, Maryland. A staff of experts answers prisoners' questions.

Mrs. Poke Bonnett Says That W. T. Is a Regular Matrimonial Agency

Mrs. Poke Bonnett, anonymous Canyon author of a popular Globe-News column, wrote the West Texas State ad in Sunday's newspaper. The column follows:

Of course, any gal that has ever had two dates knows the way to catch a feller ain't to pounce on him like a hen on a June bug. It is plumb scary to a man to see a woman bearin' down on him fast, with a gleam in her eye and a weddin' veil in her hands. So a body don't just go to Canyon and announce right off to Dr. Hill, "I have come to matriculate, Dr. Hill. What kind of husbands you got available now?"

"Gets the 'Call'"

The right way to go about it is to first persuade your folks that you have got the call to be a school teacher, or secretary, or doctor or musician or something serious, takin' several years if possible. Then you get you some glamor clothes to hang in the closet, and 3-4 sweaters and skirts to go to class in, and a couple of these here white coveralls to go to work in, catchin' fellers.

An Ultimatum

And the more you talk about bein' a musician or a secretary, the more anxious the fellers is to talk you into helpin' them keep house. Now, some gals just overdoes this career business till they talk themselves into believin' it, but the best way is to run just hard enough away from them fellers so the right one catches you. A neat trick if you can do it. But I did.

"Poke," I says, "They have run out of money at home. I got to go off down in the cotton country where schools is plentiful and find me a job."

Well, Poke studied about all them miles to come to see me and decided it would be easier to get married. But I sure hope the word don't ever get back to him because bein's we married in Leap Year he is hard enough to live with now. He would never stop teasin' if he knew I didn't even send out a application!

Call Made For Induction and Physical Exams

The Randall County Selective Service has calls for 7 men for induction and 7 men for Physical Examination. Neither call can be met.

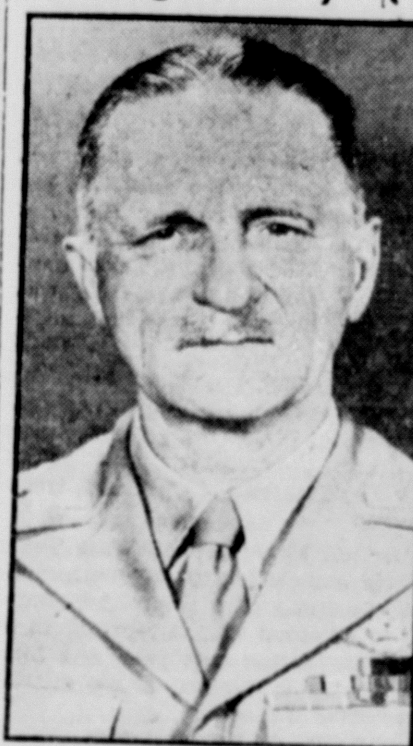

On April 3 Edward John Wiek, Aubrey Dick Woods and Joseph Roy Edward Greer will leave for Oklahoma City for induction. Billy James Harwood who has already enlisted will make a fourth on this call.

On April 4 Elmer Louis Hartman will leave to take his Physical. Seven men are on the call, but they are not available.

Shortage in 18 year olds is partly due to the fact that so many of that age in this vicinity are enrolled in college. Boards are allowed to defer all who are in school.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers of Plainview spent Saturday night with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Myers.

Highest Flyer.

Bulky, brawny Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, General Arnold's successor as AAF chief, has a long and distinguished record to fit him for his top job. In World War II he was Strategic Air Forces (bombing) Commander in Europe. Before that Spaatz worked all through the 1920's and 1930's for bigger and better airplanes. He was graduated from West Point in 1914, born in Boyertown, Pa., in 1891. Years ago he added an "a" to Spaatz so people would say it "spots" instead of "spots."

Brown Tells of Fishing Rules For the Spring

"Don't ever go on a fishing trip in March," is the first bit of advice that Mithero Brown offers to fishermen of this area.

He and Mrs. Brown have just returned from a fishing trip to Possum Kingdom. (That's near Graham, Texas). He reported that the first three days rain fell every day. Then for three days the wind practically blew them to pieces. There was only one good day for fishing. On that day they caught a number of croppie and bass, about all one catches at this season.

If anyone is planning to go down there he should be certain to take his Coleman lantern. Most of the croppie are caught at night. Hang the lantern up in a tree top overhanging the water. Then fish in the light.

Fishermen there are catching bass on big minnows, mostly in deep water where it is brushy. They are hooking some big ones, the kind that breaks one's tackle. "I know because I hooked several myself, but of course the really big ones got away," said Mr. Brown.

Accommodations at the camps on the lake are very poor. Bed clothes and cooking equipment should be taken along as the camps furnish only beds, mattresses and stove. The latter part of next month will be a good time to go to Possum Kingdom to fish.

J. D. Barker will leave at noon Thursday for Pasadena, Calif., on a business trip and to visit at the home of his brother.

Lindsey Taylor, S 2-c, arrived in Canyon Friday to spend a 20 day leave in the parental Wilford Taylor home.

He was telling her about the new football team. "Now, there's Wilson," said he; "in a few weeks he will be our best man." "Oh, Harry," she cried, "this is so sudden!"

Poorrhea can be cured, but damage already done cannot be repaired.

CREOMULSION

The only diamond mine in North America is in Arkansas.

Your columnist visited the mine, back in 1925. I hired a service car and drove over from Nashville, Ark. The highway passed through a huge peach orchard, said to be the biggest in the world. Folks said it was divided up into streets and avenues so it was no trouble to find any particular worker during the picking season as a record was kept in the office and they knew he would be working on 23rd Street near Avenue M. or something like that.

The diamond mine is near Murfreesboro. The field was discovered by a farmer in 1907. As the story was told to me, the farmer was recovering from a fever and was sitting under a tree when some of the children, who were plowing, turned up a peculiar stone, which he noticed. The rock proved to be a diamond which sold for $2,500.

On the day of my visit, as we approached the town, the driver crossed a railroad track without looking in either direction. At my exclamation, he said, "Oh, they don't have but two trains a week, Monday and Thursday, and this is Saturday."

Surrounding the diamond mine was a solid fence and the gate was opened by a man who had a rifle. Our credentials proving satisfactory, we were admitted and walked about the place with a guide. There were armed men pacing up and down close to that high board fence like sentinels. There was a sifter thru which the rocks were run and the diamonds were sorted out. Your observer was shown 20 or so and had the privilege of letting them trickle through my fingers. I sorter thought they might give me one as a trifling souvenir of my visit but they didn't—of course. I wasn't expecting a diamond of the headlight size, just a modest little half-carat one.

These were really diamonds in the rough and it would take a trained eye to see that they were precious stones just waiting to be cut and set into rings and bracelets.

No accurate figures on the total output have ever been published but the Smithsonian Institute reported in 1928 that 10,000 diamonds with a conservative value of $150,000 had been taken from the field.

LET'S WORK FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Men want to work.

Management wants to produce.

The public wants to buy.

The country wants prosperity.

Yet good times have been held up by an agony of strikes.

Strikes breed bitterness . . . hunger . . . and economic stagnation.

For the sake of our country, let's change this! Change it fast. Time is running out!

Let's work out a way to get — and keep — industrial peace and prosperity.

THE FIRST STEP

Isn't a sound national labor policy . . . one that treats workers and management exactly alike and above all one that is fair to the public . . . the first step toward that peace?

Sincerely believing this to be so, we offer this program for peace and production and prosperity:

1. Make employers and unions equal in responsibility under the law.

2. Let Congress set the rules for genuine collective bargaining, free from coercion and violence, and then let government enforce these rules with strict impartiality.

3. Provide safeguards for the public against strikes or boycotts arising from disputes between unions.

4. Insure against strikes until all orderly procedures for settling disputes have been exhausted.

Your representatives in Congress have the power to establish this pattern for an enduring and a fair labor peace. Let them know how you feel about it. Urge them to act promptly on legislation to include these four points.

Time alone won't bring industrial peace. Doing nothing won't bring it. Positive action is the only way. For your own sake and for the future of our country, let your voice be heard!

FREE! A timely, authoritative booklet entitled "The Public and Industrial Peace," gives full details of this program, including specific suggestions for legislation. It is a useful handbook for every citizen, program chairman, or group leader. A postcard brings it. Address: National Association of Manufacturers, 14 West 49th Street, New York 20, N. Y.

For a Better Tomorrow for Everybody

"The G. I. in Industrial Arts" was the subject of Prof. W. Holmes Smith, at a sectional meeting. Miss Loula Grace Erdman talked to a library section. "Functional Thinking in the Teaching of Mathematics" was Prof. C. A. Murray's subject at the mathematics section. Mrs. Tommie Montfort was chairman of the speech teachers section.

Oklahoma Men Speak

Featured speakers at general sessions included Dr. Herbert Bruner, superintendent of schools at Oklahoma City, and Dr. Arnold E. Joyal, dean of the school of education at the University of Oklahoma.

Resolutions approved by the conference pledged the organization to promotion of international understanding, solidarity, and good will, and recommended the exchange of students and teachers between the United States and foreign countries, especially Russia. The teachers favored the efforts of states and federal government to secure better health care for adults and children, and urged support of candidates whose records show consistent support of education, social uplift, and child welfare.

Another resolution urged that any program of compulsory military training be arranged for minimum interference with normal education routine, and that it be a part of high school and college or summer camp programs.

As an emergency measure, the teachers endorsed federal aid to education and urged an increase in the Texas per capita apportionment. They favored a system of distribution based on average daily attendance. They urged higher salaries for teachers, together with fewer social and community restrictions. They endorsed placing of more emphasis upon character education, coupled with more studies in the field of social science.

Turn the faucet. Almost before you can say Jack Robinson, there's a stream of piping hot water. It fills the tub quickly . . . and as you relax in that refreshing bath, you think how fortunate you are to own an automatic gas water heater.

There's nothing to it, either, when it comes time to do the dishes. Your pan is soon filled with clean, hot water which makes suds instantly for the task at hand. How much quicker dishes get done, you think, now that this automatic service is a part of your every day life.

And on wash days! There's this time when an automatic gas water heater is worth its weight in precious metal. A washer full of water heated to the right temperature . . . or a tubful or two . . . it makes no difference. Whatever you need is awaiting your turn of the faucet. It's all so easy, you say, when a faithful gas water heater provides your supply for you . . . without an effort on your part.

Summer or winter . . . spring or fall, when it comes to automatic hot water you can't beat gas service!

"Then why not try being dumb," rejoined Mr. Smith.

Question of Russia Is Still the Big Problem of World

By EUGENE WORLEY

The big question-mark in Washington overshadowing even our most acute domestic problems continues to be "What does Russia have in mind?"

A few days ago Senator Tom Connally of Texas, Chairman of the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee made his report to the Senate and the nation. His remarks were perhaps a little more temperate than the statements made previously by Senator Vandenberg, Republican of Michigan, who addressed the Senate several weeks back.

I quote below the highlights of the Senator's address:

"At the outset, Mr. President, I want to make my position unequivocally clear. In my opinion the General Assembly was an outstanding success. In my opinion, the United Nations machinery demonstrated undeniably its usefulness and the great influence it may exert in behalf of world peace. In my opinion, the Charter remains the best hope of mankind."

"With all the organizational problems properly disposed of, the General Assembly might have adjourned with its task well done. However, it proceeded to demonstrate its vitality by passing resolutions relating to a wide array of substantive matters, including UNRRA, war criminals, the colonial areas of the world, war refugees, and food, to mention only a few."

"As Senators know, the resolution makes ample provision for adequate safeguards. Neither the United States nor any other country will be asked to give up any atomic energy secrets until security devices have been established to protect human-kind against the terrific blasting power of the atomic bomb."

"I would not be frank, Mr. President, if I were to imply that all was light without heat in London. Just as there are evidences of party politics, sectionalism and pressure-group activities in our own Congress, so there are evidences of nationalism, power politics, and lobbying in London."

"Even so, disappointment has been expressed in some quarters because the Soviet Union voted against the United States on a number of occasions. We differed with them in respect to the postponement of the Security Council elections. We differed with them on the refugee problem and the World Federation of Trade Unions. We differed with them on other fundamental issues."

"Slowly and painfully the 51 United Nations, through the instrumentality of the General Assembly, are learning to cooperate on a peacetime basis. We must not be impatient with the progress made. We cannot expect a child to run before he has first learned to walk."

"It is possible, too, that the frank and open statements in the Council may be ushering the world into a new era in diplomacy, when statesmen will speak to the people in a language they can understand. They may be the beginning of a revision to shirt-sleeve diplomacy in the best American tradition."

"Much has recently been said in addresses and the press respecting the conduct of the Soviet Union and its future course toward the United Nations."

"My contacts at San Francisco and London convince me that Russia does not want another war. When one contemplates the devastation of territories stretching to the gates of Leningrad and Moscow by armies of the enemy; when one remembers the carnage and destruction that left Stalingrad a pile of ruins; when the graves where sleep hundreds of thousands of gallant Russians cry for peace for future generations, it can be understood why Russia does not want another war."

"Russia can have peace by supporting and cooperating with the United Nations. Her responsibility is great, because her power is great."

"So long as Russia, Great Britain, and the United States are loyal to the obligations of the Charter and adjust differences as they arise, there will be peace. Those who want peace must not commit acts to tend to provoke war."

"It is my belief that our proper course is to meet each issue in the Security Council or the Assembly or in diplomatic conduct as it arises, and to take our stand firmly upon our rights under the Charter, under treaties and under international law, and hold to that position with firmness and insistence. The consequences that follow would establish our honorable and just course in our dealings with foreign nations and with the issues of peace. Let us say to Russia, 'We want your friendship. We want to cooperate. We shared your comradeship in the bloody chapters of the most tremendous war of all time. We want your comradeship in the peace. Our countries have been traditional friends. Let that traditional friendship be cemented and strengthened and buttressed by mutual labors in behalf of world peace.'"

WHY THIS BANK RECOMMENDS

Long-Term

REAL ESTATE LOANS

THIS bank makes short-term farm loans to those who desire them, but we don't recommend 5 or 10 year terms unless the borrower is financially able to pay the loan in full by maturity.

Do you know what happens when a short-term loan comes due at the wrong time?

- You will have to negotiate a renewal loan.
- You may have to pay a higher interest rate.
- You may have to pay a commission.
- You probably will have abstracting or title policy and recording expense.
- And in the case of death your family may have to obtain court approval of the renewal.

No farm owner should take these chances when they can be avoided. That is why we recommend long-term loans that never have to be renewed, yet can be paid off just as fast as short-term loans.

Now, through our special arrangement with The Equitable Life Assurance Society, you can obtain loans with terms up to 40 years at this bank. Your loan is made by the bank, at the bank. You deal with folks you know... who are interested in your success.

Come in. Let us explain this new 40 year 4% plan. It has many money-saving features never believed possible in farm loans.

Eighth Win Intramural Honors

Well here I am again to spread all the gossip that's happened last week. And doggone there happens to be quite a bit of news!

What could've happened to Golden Currie? Well, anyhow Suzanne Stephenson was at the Freshman party with Wayne Griffin.

Peggy LaLoge was seen with Bob King, too!

Overheard: "Oh, hubba, hubba." (unquote) as Bill Wilkinson came into view. Wilma Schuette?

And who could this "Pete" be that Charlene Simmons' heart beats for?

Pauline Ruthart had a telephone call and a visit from a certain G. I. Seems like, as I recollect, his name was Harry Harvey.

And ooh-la-la here's a tid-bit! Ray McDonald and Billie Bonds have been seen together. Now, don't you all go and tell!

Eula Faye Dodson was seen at Bob's (snackin' or somethin') with some guy! Anyone know same?

Wow, ooooh, and this here's really hot! With a capital H! Bill Roberts (Rita Gunter's dream man), was seen with Eula Faye Dodson on Thursday night, Mary Alice Browning Saturday night and Barbara Dooley Saturday mid-night. Wow! See what I mean?

It 'pears that Jack Bonds and Kathryn Furlow have dropped their case. Too bad! Someone was sayin' that Katy thought Jo Dean Abbott was really cute. Cal agrees!

Well, we have somethin' in common it seems. Rusty Davis helped Nila Davis (WT) to see the show Saturday night. And they ain't brother and sister.

Seen ridin' around and not bad! Melba Stroup with Bobby Dick Dick Mickey. Orville Turner and Wesley Prater.

We wanta' know. Did Shirley Harrison and "Pin-up" Polly have fun in Lubbock last week-end?

Ruth Prichard has resolved that she is going to study every night that she isn't working on the senior play. And that her dates will be restricted to Norma Jo Currie on Saturday nights only. Who's the steady?

We . . . reckon as that's all 'til some other time. I guess. I reckon. Bye now!

Friday, March 22 at 7:00 o'clock in the Amarillo High School Gymnasium, the Canyon High School Eaglettes will play the Amarillo Sandies, both A and B teams. Martha Jean Avent will act as captain of the A team and Sue Gillispie will serve as captain of the B team.

Sandies Outscore CHS Eaglettes

For the first scheduled game of the season, Canyon High Eaglettes battled the "Eighth Wonder of the World" team from Amarillo High School in the grade school gymnasium Wednesday afternoon, March 13 at 4:00 o'clock.

Playing for two games out of three the Eaglettes were defeated in the first and third games by a small margin. At the end of the first game the score stood 16-14. In the second game the Eaglettes won out with a score of 15-11. The third game ended with the score 15-9, Amarillo's favor.

Serving as captain for the Eaglettes during these games was Dorothy Butler, who was also high-point girl with ten points to her credit. Geneva McDougal made eight points coming in as second high-point girl.

Eaglettes "B" string played against Amarillo's "B" team, and came out winners. The score at the end of the first game was 15-13, Eaglettes favor. Also they were winners of the second game with a score of 15-9, therefore a third game was not played. Mary Sue Foster was high-point girl, making eleven points. Louise Dickinson was next with eight points to her credit.

Canyon High Eaglettes will return the games when they go to Amarillo Friday night, March 22.

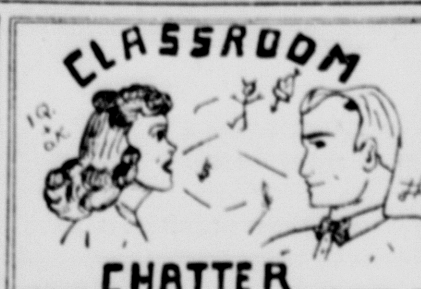

Journalism Club Is Co-Host at Meet

Table decorating for the Panhandle Association may not be attractive to most people, but for the one hundred and twenty-five press members which will attend, the newspaper vases, comic strip flowers, exchanges placed at intervals on the table and table linens of newspapers will be indicative of the visitor's interest. The decorating committee consisting of Frances Gooch, Betty Ann Miller, Anita Johnigan, Cheri Kilchriste, Guy Brant and Louise Dickinson will carry out this scheme throughout the long tables in the basement of the Methodist Church, where the banquet will be held at noon, Saturday, March 23.

The program furnished by Eagle's Tale members will consist of two vocal duets entitled "Personality" and "Symphony," by Louise Dickinson and Frances Gooch; a reading, "The Paper Must Go On," by Geraldine Small; a group song entitled "Oh, Dear Sponsor" and a Journalism contest.

Members are also finding notebooks and are sharpening pencils to use which they will take to the sectional meetings to be held in the afternoon which will deal with topics of the following nature: Planning of 1947 Year Book, Staff Organization, News Writing, Sports Writing and The School Darkroom. Nine of the fifteen journalism students of Canyon High School will attend this meeting.

Mrs. J. R. Sharp taught history and English, Tuesday, March 12, in Mrs. Wilma Hornstra's place. Mrs. Hornstra was absent due to illness.

Doesn't Mrs. Hornstra know that there isn't any such thing as an "indifferent" pronoun. Course those bright (?) English IV students knew that she meant "indefinite" pronoun. . . .

Answers given on an American History test: Schism, which is really a division of the Republican Party, was defined: "Sounds like a bug of some sort." Also, San Jacinto, location of a famous battle in Texas, was defined as "a suburb of Amarillo." . . . If anyone needs a lesson on how to jump real high, just ask Bobby Jean Ford. At the intramural finals Tuesday, every time the eighth grade made a goal, she would almost hit the ceiling along with a loud yell and a clap. School spirit deluxe. . . . Do all the shop classes hold discussions on what time girls have to go home as the fourth period class did? Well, anyway, Malcolm Gunter, Blake Zachry, Ray McDonald, Clifford Burtz, and Easton Wall had a round table discussion on the subject. . . . In the American History class, W. P. A. was defined like this: "We Piddle Along." . . . Richard Walters told this one. In the United States they teach Mother Goose and in Germany they teach Papa Ganda (propaganda). That's the joke son. . . . Tommy Gooch and Robert McClen-don were heard discussing the subject of shaving. Tommy said he was going to have to start shaving soon and Robert asked him why. "Because my mustache is growing," replied Tommy in dead earnest. . . . Mrs. Hornstra ask Geneva McDougal what kind of man William II was and she said "A male-man."

Trampling the freshmen for a 37-20 victory, the eighth grade boys won the basketball intramural finals last Tuesday afternoon to put an end to the basketball season. They will receive an engraved trophy for being the victors.

As they had defeated the eighth grade, March 6, the freshmen were slated to win in the minds of the spectators. However, at the half, the score stood 13-6 in favor of the eighth, and at the close of the game, the score was 37-20, the eighth on top. Sharing high point honors for the lower classmen were Harold Martin and Donnell Ruthart with nine points each. James Inman was high point man on the freshman team with six points. Those participating on the winning team were: Captain Bruce Winn, Harold Martin, Joe Abbott, Donnell Ruthart, and Billy McCarter. Substitutes were: A. G. Craig, Troy Burrus, and Charles Lindsey. The freshman team was: Billy Cleavinger (acting captain), James Inman, Jerre Inman, Jimmie Lindsey, and Wayne Griffin. Substitutes were: Harry Campfield and Bryce Slack. Coach of the winners is Easton Wall, sophomore, and James Guthrie, junior, is coach of the freshmen.

Silver basketballs were given to the best player on each team, chosen by the coaches of each team and Coach Wheelock. They are: Weeley Prater, senior, Lloyd Lindsey, junior, Lee Bailey, sophomore, Jimmie Lindsey, freshman, Bruce Winn, eighth grade, and Landon Barrett, seventh grade. The trophy has arrived yet, so it could not be presented.

Dr. A. M. Meyer Addresses Canyon Teacher's Meeting

Speaking at the Classroom Teacher's meeting March 6, was Dr. A. M. Meyer who spoke on "Federal Aid to States for Education." Other guests were: Dr. J. B. Speer, Miss Elva Fronabarger, Mr. Rosa Craig, Mr. Jim Spencer, Mrs. Devin and Mrs. Meyer.

While refreshments of punch and cake were being served by hostesses: Miss Katherine Davies, Mrs. W. C. Hornstra, and Mrs. P. S. Merchant, questions were asked Dr. Meyer on his speech topic.

For April 11, a Public Relation Program is planned with Charles Rogers, superintendent of Amarillo Schools as guest speaker.

Mrs. John Davis is going to Fort Worth, on March 30, to attend a called meeting of the presidents of Local Classroom Teachers Chapter of Texas. To discuss the formation of a tenure bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature is the purpose of the meeting.

MANNERS, DO YOU USE THEM?

Webster says that manners are social behavior as to have good or bad manners; rules of social conduct, as the manners of today.

Do you realize that people who visit our school judge it in part by the way we act in the cafeteria at noon? When you ask for more bread do you say, "Hey, gimmy some bread!" or do you say, "Please pass the bread?" The latter would be correct.

People do not expect you to use such exquisite manners as you would if you were invited to a formal banquet or tea, but you should use a few. It's the little things, as illustrated above, that really count. Are you one of these people who shout at the top of his voice "PASS the bread," or do you politely say "Please pass the bread." If you are impolite, why not try the other way and see if you don't get just as much "bread."

By Guy Brant.

WHAT ENTERTAINMENT!

This is from all the volley ball girls to the people who attended the game March 13. Thanks a lot!

The crowd was large for the team's first game, and to those W. T. kids that came and yelled, thanks a lot! We really enjoyed having you.

To all the people that didn't come; it was free and you could have seen a good game; and to those people who don't understand the game, it goes this way.

With the team of six on each side of the net, the ball is put into play by the server from the left hand side of the court. Volleying the ball back across the net with not more than three volleys for each side is the object of the game. When a side fails to do this the other side gains the point. Rotation of the players offers each an opportunity to play different positions. The first team to gain 15 points wins the game. The usual procedure is the playing of three games, two out of three being the winner.

So come on everybody and attend that next game. You'll surely get some good entertainment.

WATCH THOSE PAPERS

Yes, spring has sprung again and everybody is happy over the fact, I think. Since it is warm now and we will be spending more and more of our time outside during the noon hour, let's watch those candy wrappers and keep them off our grass. Our yard is getting greener every day and since we haven't begun to litter it with papers, let's everybody do his share to keep it clean.

This is just a little early for such a writing but better early than late. When we travel to other cities, we always see clean school yards and that is a credit to any school, so come on everybody and don't forget where those waste paper baskets are placed.

Farmers are your neighbors—They want you to know that—

Cooperatives

put the
GOLDEN RULE into action

The men brought their hammers and their saws

The women brought along their kettles and their "vittles"

"As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them, likewise."

That is a scriptural injunction which everyone learns in childhood. Too often it is forgotten in the stress and strain of daily living.

Your neighbors, the farmers, have put the Golden Rule into action through their cooperatives. Human necessity led farmers to work together for the common good. This working together is not new. Farmers have practiced cooperation for generations before there were co-ops.

The old barn raising bee is an example of farmer-cooperation. The farmer who needed a barn called on his neighbors. The whole community helped to build the barn. The men brought their hammers and their saws. The women brought along their kettles and their "vittles". Working together as a team, the farmers raised their neighbor's barn.

That spirit of cooperation among farmers has come down through the years.

Today, farmers continue to be America's cooperatives. Three out of every four farmers in the great Northwest belong to one or more cooperatives.

The problem of the farmer is one of obtaining a stabilized income.

Farmers know that it is dangerous for Americans to allow any large segment of the economy to suffer. They want everyone to prosper. They know that they can produce all the food and fiber the people need. The war proved that.

Through their cooperative effort farmers have achieved some measure of economic security. They buy equipment and supplies and sell their products—at cost. They furnish themselves with the services they require because they all are part and parcel of their cooperative. They have equality in all decisions.

Farmers' cooperatives are non-profit enterprises. All the earnings are returned to the farmers as savings—on the basis of their patronage.

Thus, in teaming up with others, the individual farmer has met the problem common to all farmers.

For, true cooperation is founded on a regard for one's own neighbors.

One must do for others what he wishes them to do for him. Thus, true team work brings into action the Golden Rule.

Your neighbor, the farmer, wants you to know how he built his co-op. He wants you to understand his attitude. He welcomes your friendship and goodwill.

Drop in at the nearest farmers' co-op. Get acquainted with the manager. He's your neighbor.

These cooperatives help build your community

It wasn't so long ago that only a few farmers in the Panhandle-Plains area knew that the finest potatoes in the country could be grown in this area. It was a small crop then and didn't amount to much.

But look at the potato crop now! It's important and becoming more so every year. Our potatoes are superior to those from the northern states. They taste better—bake better. Agriculture experts will tell you that! And our potatoes are easily marketed.

Yes—we have everything in the Panhandle-Plains—including an abundant supply of cheap, dependable electric power for irrigation and processing of agricultural products.

on T-Anchor Dies

C. J. E. Loundes died in Amarillo Tuesday. He was well known among the old timers of the Panhandle. He came from England to accept a job as bookkeeper on the T-Anchor Ranch, with headquarters at the old log cabin which stands on the College Farm north of Canyon.

Mr. Loundes has been a vice-president of the First National Bank in Amarillo for 55 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bull were here Monday getting a new car which they recently bought from Randall Motor Co. Mr. Bull has accepted a position with an oil company in Albuquerque. The couple was married three weeks ago at Post.

Clarence Eugene Thompson, R. T. 1-c arrived Thursday on a delay enroute leave to receive his discharge at Norman, Oklahoma.

A. L. Walsh, Jr., Ph. M. 2-c left Wednesday for Ft. Worth after having spent a 2 week's leave in the parental Walsh home.
